

R6

3671

4 JAN 1973

INDIAN EXPRESS

City forum mourns CR

By A Staff Reporter

A meeting to mourn the death of Mr. C. Rajagopalachari was convened by the Common Man's Forum, Bombay, on Wednesday.

Mayor R. K. Ganatra, who moved a resolution condoling the death, said Rajaji was a great son of India.

Mr. Mukundrao Patil (Old Cong.) said Rajaji had served the country in various capacities with distinction.

Mr. Ramrao Adik (BPCC) said Rajaji was not a blind follower of Mahatma Gandhi. He expressed his views without fear or favour.

Mr. N. Dandekar (Swatantra) described the founder-leader of the Swatantra as a man of intellectual integrity and moral superiority.

Mr. Iqbal Gaya (MPCC) said Rajaji had a great foresight.

Mr. G. B. Kanitkar (Jana Sangh) stated that Mr. Rajagopalachari was a man of conviction. He was not only a politician but a great writer.

Prof. S. S. Varde (Socialist Party) said Rajaji had the courage of his convictions.

Mr. Nana Chudasama presided.