General Secretary's Letter No.122

Dear friend,

At a meeting of Secretaries of State Units held in Bombay on the morning of Sunday, May 29, 1966, a schedule of State Conventions in various parts of the country was worked out in order to prevent clashing of dates and to enable the Party's leaders to be in a position to attend these Conventions, if invited. The following is the schedule of Conventions that was agreed upon :

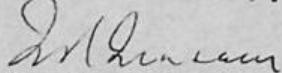

MYSORE : June 11 and 12, 1966, at Bangalore
MADRAS : September 24 and 25, 1966.
RAJASTHAN: October 22 and 23, 1966.
ORISSA : October 8 and 9, 1966.
GUJERAT : October 30 and 31, 1966 at Ahmedabad.
ANDHRA : October 1 and 2, 1966.
PUNJAB : November 5 and 6, 1966.

Would you kindly confirm the date, as also the venue of the proposed convention in so far as your state is concerned?

For your information, it has been decided by the National Executive that the National Convention should take place in the first half of November. The venue of the Convention has been tentatively fixed in Delhi.

An early reply confirming the dates and venue of your State Convention will be appreciated.

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. Masani)

General Secretary
