GENERAL SECRETARY'S LETTER No.154

Dear friend,

The National Executive at its meeting in New Delhi on May 21 discussed the possibility of holding meetings of the Central Parliamentary Board, the National Executive and the General Council in various State capitals from time to time. I may add that meetings of the National Executive are generally held once in three months, while those of the General Council are usually held only once a year.

I am writing this to draw your attention to this suggestion of the National Executive and would appreciate if this were discussed at the next meeting of your State Committee. Invitations for holding of such meetings will be recorded by the Central Office and we shall get in touch with the appropriate Unit as and when the National Executive decides to meet next.

In so far as the financial liability of such meetings is concerned, while members of the National Executive will pay their own fares and cost of accomodation, the accomodation expenses for some members of the General Council will have to be borne by the host unit. The expenses for the meeting hall will also have to be borne by the State Unit, both for the National Executive meetings and for the Council meetings.

Yours sincerely,

(N. Dandeker)

Actg. General Secretary
