GENERAL SECRETARY'S LETTER No. 147

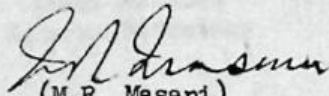

Dear friend,

Arising from the election to the Lok Sabha of several members of the Rajya Sabha, vacancies will perhaps arise in your State for the Rajya Sabha.

2. To consider this situation, will you kindly convene an early meeting of your State Parliamentary Board to enable you to make your recommendations, if any, in regard to possible candidatures from our Party?

3. This action should be taken as soon as possible and the recommendations sent to us well in advance of the dates on which these by-elections will be held.

Yours sincerely,

(M.R. Masani)
General Secretary

P.S. - The above is in pursuance of a decision of the Central Parliamentary Board at its meeting in Madras on March 1.
