GENERAL SECRETARY'S LETTER NO. 139

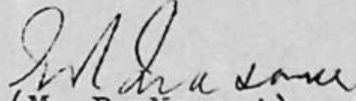

Dear Friend,

I was in Madras recently to meet Rajaji. He is very much better now although he has been advised complete rest for the next few weeks.

2. In view of doctor's advice that he should take complete rest and the fact that we cannot conceive of our Party's National Convention without his presence, it has been decided, in consultation with him, that the National Convention will take place in New Delhi at Sapru House on December 12 and 13 and not on November 16 and 17 as communicated to you vide G.S. Letter No. 134.

3. Please note that the procedure for the selection of delegates is not in any way affected by this change of dates and that your list of delegates should reach the Central Office by 31st October.

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. Masani)
General Secretary
