RAJAJI'S INDEPENDENCE DAY APPEAL

Rajaji recently wrote in Swarajya: "I smell the coming upsurge against the Congress Party as one smells a coming storm and rain.

"The main difficulty is that the Congress has infinite cash as against its opponents. I appeal therefore for offers from good and qualified men to stand as candidates for Parliament on the Swatantra ticket who are able to meet their own election expenses. We are considering a plan under which we throw all caution to the winds and set up our candidates in three to four hundred parliamentary constituencies and have it out with the Congress."

The Swatantra Party appeals to you to respond to this call.
