2. Mr. Masani suggested we should take note of the Deputy Speaker's performance in the House during the last few days which call for some initiative on our part. It was suggested that the subject be further discussed in the meeting of the General Body of the Party.

3. Mr. Masani apprised of the discussions of the leaders of the Parties regarding the behaviour of the leftists members of the House, when the other day they prevented most of the members to speak while the calling attention notice of E.M. Hambroodripad's and Mr. A.K. Gopalakrishna's statement was answered. Most members have now felt that in case such an attempt was made again by the leftist members, we should not be silent spectators and our members, members of the Jan Sangh and the IND and others should react.
