Mr. M. S. Raghav for the petitioner.

Hieard Mr. Raghav. He took us through various decisions of Supreme Court from 1976 afterwards with reference to 42nd amendment of Constitution of India. It appears the question relating to amendment of constitution has not been decided finally by Supreme Court, as yet. As it is a question of public importance relating to interpretation of Constitution of India, the case deserves to be admitted.

It is admitted. Issue notice to respondents.
