My dear Rajaji,

When I was in Bombay last weekend, Mr. Hawkins of the Oxford University Press was good enough to send me a copy of your letter to me of 5th August 1950 on seeing my little book "Our Growing Human Family." I was very touched to be reminded of your wonderful appreciation of my effort. Would you still like me to stop wasting my "valuable talent" in the Swatantra Party and settle down as a school-master?

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. MASANI)
