

(TRUE COPY)

4178
1, York Place,
New Delhi,
5.8.50.

My dear Masani,

Your beautiful book. Why don't you settle down as a schoolmaster instead of all this waste of valuable talent in a crowd that chatters in inaudible and unintelligible words about nothing at all?

Of course I wish you were a teacher but I must then wish our children all spoke English as "mother tongue". Your language is so good, it is a pity it is some one else's language.

Yours sincerely,

SD/- C. Rajagopalachari