December 27, 1963.

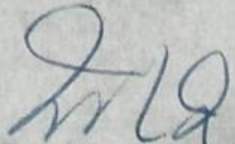

My dear Rajaji,

Your letter of December 20 has been forwarded to me here from Delhi. As you know, we had to discontinue the allocation for your office by reason of the inability of the Treasurer to provide funds for the running of the Central Office. In the last couple of months thanks to the efforts made jointly by Sir Hom Mody and myself the position has slightly improved and ~~regular~~ payments have been resumed by the ~~Treasurer~~ to us. This has not yet placed us in a position to undertake our earlier obligations but we certainly do not want you to be inconvenienced by lack of modest office facilities at your end and I am, therefore, enclosing a cheque for Rs. 500/- which I hope will take care of things for the present. We shall talk about this matter when we meet next and make an arrangement by which you will not be bothered with this little headache.

May I take this opportunity to wish you a happy New Year and good health in the coming 12 months.

Yours sincerely,

Encl*
