Dear Rajaji,

I was most happy to hear from Mr. Minoo Masani this morning that you have been kind enough to accept my invitation and address the Rotary Club of Bombay on Tuesday, 16th June 1964. I understand the title of the talk selected by you is "What About Our Neighbours?"

I am sure this subject, which is engaging the attention of not only our own country, but a good part of the world, will be most interesting; and we shall all be very eager to hear you speak.

We shall be very happy to make any special arrangement for you about the type of food you would like to partake.

I shall be grateful to have a line from you per return.

Thanking you and with kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Mr. C. Rajagopalachari
