My dear Masani,

Your letter of July 24
about a foreword for Mr. Noorani and arrangements made by you for it.
I would rather not write any forewords for other people's books. Forewords recommending books is a vulgar practice, very popular in India, which I don't like.
By the way, have you noticed Kodanda Rao's controverting Noorani's statements (some parts)?

Yours sincerely,

C. Rajagopalachari
