Your Express letter of July 18,
I regret, reached my hands on Tuesday night.
The Swarajya of 25-7-64 has been already printed and despatched. I am thinking of a small para for the issue of 1-8-64
although by then no one will remember the case.

My regards to Mrs. Masani,

My dear Mr. Masani,

I have sent you this morning the following telegram in reply to yours of 10th July:

" SORRY TYPOGRAPHICAL MISTAKE DR HUSAIN ZAHEER IS PRESENTLY DIRECTOR GENERAL OF COUNCIL OF SCIENTIFIC & INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH "

I am sorry, it was because of a typographical mistake this confusion was created. I hope you will forgive me for this mistake committed inadvertently.

I am enclosing herewith for your kind perusal an interesting article on Lal Bahadur Shastri, written by Prof. and Mrs. Rudolph of Harvard University, who were here some time back and also met you in Canning Lane. Mamsterm in its latest issue has commented on Mr's visit to Taiwan.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

A.P. Jain
