My dear Acharya Ranga,

I am sorry to learn from your PC that nobody turned from M.P. I am suffering from Asthama and therefore could not come.

I do not know what the Central Office is doing about other districts in M.P. It is difficult to write to persons without information.

We have here to fight the Congress and the Jan Sangh. We are not getting good organizers and able workers. I am despairing. How long should I alone go on spending money?

I had sent a note about M.P. to the C. Office. I do not know whether it was placed before the C.O.C.

I am glad to hear that Rajaji is keeping good health.

What are we doing about the 17th amendment? We must intensify our campaign.

With affectionate regards.

Yours affectionately
N. Janimolai

P.S.

Pl. convey my best regards to
Smt. Bharathi Devi.
