My Dear Masani
Happy New Year.

Thanks to the initiative of both Dabhyabhai and Loknath, our party has gained this excellent trophy on the Eve of the New Year.

It is natural but not so usual, all the three of us have thought of the greater need for a liberalisation of taxation policies.
This is sure to strike the mind of the public.

At the P. N. S. Conference, he has indicated the possible limits, of our having to make concessions.
We have however sounded the needed cautions. He too agreed.
He is very nervous.

I laid stress on the need for taking advantage of Bakshi's friendship and all others who are willing to cooperate in order to bring them to the P. N. S. But especially in view of the High Court Judgement, I warned them also that as a result of their too many

I have laid them on Ray's idea of 32 linear & if possible in the parish of Kent location, perhaps since most of the houses are small and most of them
