2. At the initiative of Mr. Piloo Mody, there was a general discussion on the behaviour of Communist and socialist members of Parliament in the Lok Sabha on 13th November when the Prime Minister was prevented from speaking. The Committee took a grave view of these developments as the Committee thought that these developments will seriously affect the future of the parliamentary democracy in our country. It was decided that through every possible means we should voice concern to create awareness amongst the people of the dangerous situation which is developing.

3. The Committee recommended to the Parliamentary Board and the National Executive to take note of this and, if possible, to pass a resolution condemning behaviour of the Communists, Socialists and Congress Members of Parliament.
