My dear Minoo

Thank you for sending me the confidential correspondence with your letter of June the 7th. The reading of the correspondence saddens one and, being pessimistic, I fear that the party cannot be saved. It appears that its morals are not much better than ^{that of} any other political party.

However, I shall continue to wish very warmly all that is best for the country, for the party and you.

You
Rustin

(R. Choksi).
