My dear Minoo,

Last night I received a copy of your letter to the members of the General Council, and all I can say is that if this does not help to set the party on the right track, I do not know what will. You have put the case admirably, but how I wish I could say that this will have an overwhelming response. My experience at the last meeting in Delhi has been somewhat shattering. We will see what happens in Madras.

Yours sincerely,

(C. R. IRANI)
