Respected Shri Masani,

I have been anxiously reading in the newspapers about your role in the Parliament and outside. All that, particularly your strong stand against corrupt people in the Party (in the sense of not being true to the Party) in Gujarat, has heartened and encouraged me to seek your valuable assistance as a Representative of the People (irrespective of the area which is but an opportunity) for the following two causes:

- (i) Against powerful and influential strong-holders of Rajasthani (to begin with) who also manipulate to harass the honest, conscientious and efficient Govt. Servants who put a stop to their nefarious activities, by transfers, suspensions and in attempting to get those innocent punished even removed, as the contemplated safeguards in the Public Service Commission (particularly in the States) have been rendered to nullity (as also largely the High Courts) by making appointments of their members on the advice of politicians, thereby under political considerations and expediency; and
- (ii) Against these corrupt Govt. Servants, as a policy, who manipulate to secure promotions and even Presidential Awards for Gallantry without rendering any such act in fact but solely by manipulations possible by money - thrown - what to talk of postings and transfers.

2. Myself being a prey to both these manipulations have attained the required experience by acting against the aforesaid classes of people, and therefore am able to render really constructive suggestions to lead to remedying these two features gnawing at the very foundations of our infant democracy & the nation.
3. I have also a plan to give fillip to "cheerfulness and sacrifice" for the country to enthuse the large number of people having these qualities (to begin with from Rajasthan - the nerve of whose people I know), out of whom a cadre of selfless political workers can be raised; out of whom further selections can be made (after imparting them the training of the role to be performed by them) to represent the people so as to not only obviate corrupt practices wholly but also to lead to their constructive approach to the task they have to perform (defectiveness being a very minor feature of the general malady rampant presently). Being in administration sufficiently long and having the vision of the future, I can render this ideal to reality.

4. Details on hearing from you, I preferably personally but I have no means to spare for travelling expenses being under suspension for 16 months with a family to support.

With best of earnest regards, Yours sincerely
M. R. Masani
