My dear Thakoresaheb,

I am directed by the National Executive to request you to show cause why the Executive should not consider taking disciplinary action against you in regard to the following matters:-

(a) That you proposed Shri U.N.Mahida for election to the Rajya Sabha by the Vidhan Sabha of Gujarat in March 1968 despite your knowing that his candidature did not have the approval of the Central Parliamentary Board of the Party.

(b) That you failed to withdraw the proposal and continued to extend active support to the candidature of Shri U.N.Mahida - contrary to the specific request made to you in that behalf by the President of the Gujarat State Swatantra Party in his letter dated 18.3.1968 in defiance of the decision of the Central Parliamentary Board approving the candidature of Shri Babubhai Vaidya as the only candidate of the Party for the said election.

- and -

(c) That according to your own statement (made after voting) you voted for Shri U.N.Mahida.

2. You are requested to send your explanation in regard to the above within a fortnight of the receipt of this letter. The explanation should be sent through the President (Shri H.M.Patel) of the Gujarat Swatantra Party, a copy being sent direct to me at the same time.

Yours faithfully,

(N.Dandekar)
