My dear Masani

Dandeker tells me you may not be attending the meetings of the Central Parliamentary Board and the National Executive at Delhi on 13th/14th April.

Please, this won't do at all. As you know, these meetings may well become the turning point for the future of our Party not only in Gujarat but also in other States. Bhaikaka and H.M. Patel will be here; and Jaideepsinghji of Baria may also be present.

At this juncture your presence at these meetings would be most valuable because your views, advice and guidance are also necessary if we are to reach a correct solution for resolving the situation in Gujarat. So, if you feel that your resignation stands in the way of your attending these meetings, please accept this as a Special Invitation from me personally requesting your presence.

With Kind regards,

(N. G. Ranga)
