My dear Masani,

Ranga has sent me a copy of his letter to you dated 10th August about the possible engagement he will accept for a Washington meet of World Peasants. It is all very amusing and from many angles. But I think he had better go, if the expenses are found.

If it materialises, you need not put off the Delhi meeting. The purpose of that meeting stands unaffected, ~~barring~~ the party elections Ranga refers to, which matter you can judge.

Yours sincerely,

C. Rajagopalachari
