My dear Rajaji,

The Programme Committee of the Rotary Club of Bombay have asked me to find out whether you can give a talk in Bombay on the 17th Amendment. The time they give to speakers is 20 minutes. You will certainly get a good cross section of the elite to listen to you. They have Tuesday lunch meetings and wonder whether one of those days during April or May would be possible.

Munshi had suggested that the next meeting of the COC should be in Bombay to facilitate his presence. Do you think we can plan a meeting some time in the first half of May. April is ruled out by the fact that Parliament will be in session either till 1st or 8th May. If you like the idea, we may tentatively schedule a meeting of the COC on Saturday and Sunday, the 9th and 10th of May, in which case you can address the Rotary on Tuesday 12th.

Do please let me know what reply you would like me to give to the Rotary Club.

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. MASANI)
