My dear Rajaji,

Thank you very much for your kind and generous letter about my Budget speech. Your appreciation always acts as a great encouragement to me.

I was sorry to see in the morning papers of yesterday a reference to the attack on your daughter but I am relieved to see that the injury has turned out to be a simple one and that she is already back home. I do hope the wound is healing satisfactorily.

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. MASANI)
