My dear Tinos

Congratulations upon this well-deserved electoral triumph of yours. It is a tribute as much to your bold personality as to all the democratic forces and parties that have so generously ranged themselves behind you. Many a good friend like the Javari of Tassal, Baria Mahari, Sarpanch and our good old Swatantra stalwart Bhailalbai Patil, Neharaj Solanki, the Javari friend Joshi and others have done their best.

We are equally beholden to Rajyee, Kripalani, Munshiye, Sargat Devi, Leelavatiye and Dhyanbai Patel. I am confident that you have exposed our party's foetide also to them all.

Your triumph is particularly a source of strength to Rajyee and me, because, we can now feel confident of our movement's future and can, henceforth, hope to persuade friends to contribute liberally to the maintenance of our party's organisational and publicity wings. I can also feel more hopeful of our Group's contribution to Parliamentary work.
I am conveying my felicitations to our Raju, other members of Bombay phalanx and Mrs Masani. With affection Ramu
