My dear Rajaji,

I enclose a clipping from the Free Press Journal of this morning giving a summary of Munship's speech to the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Ahmedabad. I sympathise with our Gujarat colleagues.

I am only drawing your attention to this depressing item because of your suggestion to me at Coimbatore that we should encourage Munship to go all round the country and speak on the Budget. That would have been a very good idea but unfortunately the theme of "unconditional support" in Munship's opening statement at the outbreak of hostilities has by no means been abandoned.

Yours sincerely,

(M.R.Masani)
