Mr. K.M. Koushik and Mr. P.K. Deo attended as special invitees.

Madhu Limaye's privilege motion against Shri Srikantha Nair for breaking the glass of lobby door was discussed. It was decided that we should support the motion. While participating in the debate, our speaker, however, should condemn the unruly behaviour of the Members of the SSP also. Mr. Masani was requested to speak on the motion.

The following Members were nominated to speak on items indicated against each:

Essential Commodities Bill Mr. N. Shivappa

Haryana State Legislature
(Delegation of Powers) Bill Mr. P.K. Deo

Monopolies and Restrictive
Trade Practices Bill - Select Committee Mr. D.N. Patodia

Prof. R.K. Amin to speak on the motion to refer the bill to the Select Committee. Party line on the Bill was detailed by Mr. Masani

Insecticides Bill Shri P.K. Deo

The Members were informed of the meeting of the Leaders of the various parties to consider the question of advisability or otherwise of joining the Consultative Committees. The leaders were of the view that unless our minimum demand already submitted to the Minister for Parliamentary Affairs for giving statutory status to committees attached to some of the ministries and keeping record of proceedings etc. and restricting the size of the Committees etc. be accepted by him, we should not participate in the Committees. It was mentioned that some Members were attending the meetings of the Consultative Committees; they were requested not to do so till they were otherwise directed.

The following names were approved for joining the team going to South India to study working of some of the State projects;

1. Shri Meetha Lal
2. Shri Dahyabhai Parmar
3. Shri Anirudha Dipa
