On a suggestion made by Shri Dahyabhai Patel, it was agreed that while concluding^{ing} their speeches our principal spokesmen in the two Houses should suggest the adjournment of the House till the new Prime Minister was elected by the Ruling Party so as to give a look of stability of the administration in the country.

S. Kapur Singh's complaint regarding recent Party's nominations to Select and Parliamentary Committees was discussed. It was decided that in future a more formal procedure of inviting nominations be adopted before finalising the Party's nominees.

The meeting adjourned with a vote of thanks to the Chair.
