Prof. Ranga took the Chair.

It was decided that no Member should leave the Capital unless he has informed either the Whip or one of the Secretaries, preferably in writing. This was considered desirable as on any important item the Party might decide to divide the House and if it failed to secure enough votes, it would cut a sorry figure.

All Members were requested to be present in Delhi on 28th April 1964 in connection with the elections of Public Accounts, Estimates and Public Undertakings Committees.

It was decided that the elections to office bearers of Rajya Sabha should be held in August. Till then the statusquo should continue.

KAPUR SINGH
SECRETARY.
