Prof. R.K. Amin's letter regarding principles to be observed for selecting the speakers on various items was discussed. It was left to the Leader to nominate principal speakers on important items involving policy matters in consultation with the Executive Committee.

The question of sending parliamentary delegation to Naxalbari was again discussed. The leader reported the letter which he and Mr. Masani had received from Rajaji in this regard and the discussion which they had consequently amongst themselves. It was decided that no delegation need be sent for the time being for on the spot study. The Members were informed that for an informal study, Mr. Patodia and Mr. Dandekar were being requested to go to Calcutta, talk to people and report to the Party.

List of arrears of subscription was read out by the Leader and the Members were requested to clear off their arrears at the earliest, to enable the secretariat to function smoothly.
