

30th November, 1959

I am glad to know that the Swatantra Party in Coorg is having its District Conference on the 6th December, and I deeply regret that owing to a previous engagement in Calcutta on that date, it will be impossible for me to be with you on this occasion.

The people of Coorg are amongst the most progressive and the most valiant in our country, and even today provide India with her foremost military leaders. With such a background I am sure that the courage and drive which are required for the building up of the Swatantra Party in Coorg will not be wanting.

I wish your Conference every success.
