My dear Dwivedi,

I am glad to get your letter handed over at our Party office and to hear from you after all this time. It is good to know of your interest in this Party and your desire to work for it. Naturally I am delighted to welcome you and thank you for your kind offer.

As I am not an Office Bearer of the Party, I do not know what exactly are the arrangements made in Madhya Pradesh. I shall, however, be meeting Professor Ranga in Madras along with Rajaji on the 31st instant and am taking your letter with me to clarify the position. I shall then write to you again on the 4th November.

Meanwhile I am enclosing herewith a copy of the handbook of the Bombay Convention which should give all necessary information put together.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

encl.
