My dear Ram Rai,

I have your letter of 17th October which I have seen on my return from Delhi two days back. Since I am only the Chairman of the Bombay Party, I am afraid my capacity to function on the lines you suggest is somewhat limited.

I send you herewith a copy of the handbook of the Bombay Convention which will give you the names of the Committee members, etc.

I leave for Delhi on the 15th November.

I talked to Bhailalbhai the other day when he was here about your offer of cooperation and your various suggestions and that you would be contacting him direct. He was happy to know that your help would be available to him.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

encl.
