Dear Mr. Mariswamy,

I have just received your letter of 12th October as I am about to leave for Delhi where I shall be next week at 40 Canning Lane, New Delhi, attending the meeting of the Select Committee for the Companies Amendment Bill.

I am grateful to you for your kind invitation to attend the Tiruchi Convention on 8th November. Unfortunately, it will not be possible for me to stay in Madras for a whole week between my visit to Rajaji and the 8th. Indeed, I am planning to return to Bombay on the same day, after the discussions with Rajaji. In any event, that particular date would have been possible since I have already promised to attend the Convention of the Swatantra Party in Coorg at the invitation of our friends. in Mysore

Yours sincerely,

M. R. Masani
