General Secretary's Letter No. 221.

Dear Friend:

Sub: Translation of Mid-Term Report

Our office had sent you ²⁰⁰... copies of the Mid-Term Report, an extra copy of which is attached. We do not know what steps, if any, your Unit has taken to publicise this document extensively in your State.

2. You will agree it is necessary that as many people as possible should read this report, and for this purpose it must be available to them in their local languages.

3. So far, we have only come across a translation of the report in Gujarati. We would like you therefore to take immediate steps to translate the Mid-Term Report in the language of your State if you have not already done so.

4. One way of giving wide publicity to the Report would be to publish in the following journal/s a translated version and reprints printed in fairly large numbers for distribution to District and Primary Units:

State	Name of Periodical	Language
Andhra	Vahini	Telugu
Delhi	1. Swatantra Jyoti 2. Swarajya Sandesh	Hindi
Gujarat	Swarajya Sandesh	Gujarati
Kerala	Swatantra Janatha	Kerala
Madras	Chanakyan	Tamil
Mysore	(New Kannada Weekly)	Kannada
Orissa	Swarajya	Oriya

5. Regarding the cost of these reprints, while we can give no promise or assurance, please let us know what it would cost to have reprints of the report printed on the cheapest possible paper. We shall consider the matter in the light of available resources. In any event, the reprints should be printed and distributed in your local language.

Yours sincerely,

(R. C. Cooper)
General Secretary

Dear Dr. Cooper,

Re: Translation of Mid-term Report.

With reference to your General Secretary's Letter No. 221, in regard to getting printed copies of Mid-term Report, we have already started the work and English copies would be ready, soon.

We shall be re-printing the said report in Marathi, Hindi, Gujarati and Urdu apart from English. To begin with we intend to have only 10,000 copies in all the above languages combined. The estimated cost would be about Rs. 4000/- and we shall feel highly obliged if certain assistance is extended to us by the National Headquarters.

We trust and are hopeful that we shall not fail to receive adequate response from your end.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

P. S. Koppiker
