Partymen resent Masani move

Express News Service

AHMEDABAD, May 27.

The executive of the Gujarat Swatantra Party is not in favour of replacing the present set-up with an ad hoc committee, as suggested by Mr. Mino Masani.

The executive, which met here today felt despite recent events the party was in a strong position and there was no need to dissolve, the executive.

It authorised president H. M. Patel to represent the State unit's case on all matters at the meeting of the all-India general council of the party in Madras on June 1 and 2.

The executive also discussed the case regarding Mr. Bhagwanji Patel and finalised its recommendation to the council.
