Dear Mr. Narayan,

I should like to have the following things ready:

(1) One item on the agenda of the meeting on the 20th would be to arrange with the police department some kind of liaison with the party at the level of the primary unit. In other words we should be able to have one or two persons presumably President and the Secretaries who would be able to contact the police station to bring such legitimate grievances in the constituent area to have them solved. Mrs. Datar could be helpful in this context. Kindly request when when some comes this afternoon to give a thought to the suggestion so that at the meeting we are able to present some information to the members.

(2) Please see ^{that} whether the books in the library are all set up on the shelves by the evening.

(3) Kindly find out whether Parmanandji Kejriwal is in town and whether I could meet him tomorrow-- Mahavirjayanti day being a holiday--at his residence or any other place suitable for him. -- at night

(4) Please find out from Kama and other presidents as to when they propose to call meetings of the district and the primary units.

(5) Please get in touch with Lalji Bhanji, whose number you know and arrange a meeting during the course of this week between 5 and 6 at the office.

(6) Please remind when I come there in the evening to ring up Mr. Devjibhai Ratansi to fix up a meeting with him.

(7) I believe that there is a list of people who donated monies to us lying in the office. Please keep the list ready by the evening.

Yours sincerely,

(Girish Munshi)
