My dear Sasan,

Thank you for your letter of 11th March. It is nice to hear from you after all this time and to have some news of you. I did not know you have been hibernating in Simla.

I am grateful to you for what you say about the election and also your invitation to come and stay with you for a while in Simla. I do not know when this may be possible but I shall certainly bear it in mind.

This is the time for an agonising reappraisal on the part of many of us and I am not quite clear yet about the direction to take though I have my own ideas. Certainly, fighting a by-election is not one of them.

Once again, thanks for writing. I hope things will go well with you.

Yours sincerely,

(M. R. HASANI)
