My dear Patodia,

Thank you for your generous and affectionate letter of 22nd April.

I do not know if you are aware that there is a Privilege Motion pending against me as a result of my calling those who tried to obstruct Dr. Manmohan Singh making his budget speech on 29th February, "howling hooligans".

I was asked for a comment by the Secretariat of the Lok Sabha and I have sent them a letter, copy attached, by way of comment.

I do not know Mr. Shivraj Patil but if you by any chance, know him or someone in the Secretariat, perhaps you can make sure that the matter will now be dropped.

Many thanks for anything you are able to do.

Yours sincerely,

M.R. Masani

My dear Mr. Masani

Your column in the Statesman of April 12 is highly complimentary to me.
Coming from your pen whom I have treated as my friend I feel honoured.
Conscious of my limitations and shortfalls I know that I do not deserve such compliments at all. It is your affection and love for me to which I am proud.

Best personal regards

Sincerely Yours

D. N. Patodia
