My dear Cusrow,

Thank you for your letter dated March 8, 1992.

I forward herewith a spare; copy of the letter which I have sent direct to enable you to forward it to the Joint Secretary of Parliament.

It is kind of you to offer to take the same line as I do but you are perfectly free to take any stand you feel best in the interest of the paper. I have an idea, however, that you will find yourself in agreement with what I have said in my letter to the Joint Secretary of the Lok Sabha.

Yours sincerely,

M.R. Masani

My dear Minoo,

I enclose copy of a Notice I have received from the Lok Sabha Secretariat in respect of your column published in The Statesman on March 15. The Speaker's office has asked for our comments.

I will standby whatever position you take and would like you to let me know how you wish to deal with the matter.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Cushrow Irani)
