Dear Mr. Ray,

Thank you for your letter of 14th April.

I think it has crossed my letter to Mr. Irani of 13th April sent by bag. From that you will see that I have already replied direct to the office of the Lok Sabha and sent a spare copy for you to send to them.

I trust this will not leave anything more for me to do.

Yours sincerely,

M.R. Masani

Dear Mr. Masani,

I enclose herewith copies in original of the notice of question of privilege by Shri Hannan Mollah and 8 other members against the Editor, Printer and Publisher of The Statesman (Calcutta Edition) and you for your column "As I See It" published in The Statesman of 15th March, 1992.

This is a reminder to send our comments to the Lok Sabha at the earliest. Myself and Mr. Irani have informed the Lok Sabha that we are in the process of obtaining your views and thereafter will get back to them (as you must have seen from the copy of my letter dated 11th April to the Lok Sabha sent to you yesterday).

Kindly let us have your comments. Mr. Irani is now not in the country and will be returning in a week's time.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Basudev Ray)
