NATIONAL CONVENTION

Reception Committee Office:
200, Tilak Path (Kishinagar)
INDORE-2

Dated Sept. 7, 1967.

Respected Dandekerji,

I am immensely thankful to you for your kind response. I am sorry to learn you are to enter the nursing home for an operation.

I hope and pray for your speedy recovery and convalescence.

We will be denied the opportunity of having the studied view of an ICS administrator and thinker and intellectual in the present shape of things in the country.

We would have wished you time and pressure of work permitting to write at least a few words (one full scape typed matter) on the Symposium "Future of parliamentary democracy without national character" for inclusion in the Souvenir or alternatively permission for republication of any recent article or lecture of your to be carried in the Souvenir.

With warm regards and praying for your speedy recovery.

Yours sincerely,

P. G. Rao
