

5948

At mass meetings held in capitals of all states and Union territories the people will nominate Shri Jayaprakash Narayan as India's First Lokpal.

1) The Lokpal will have jurisdiction to deal with maladministration and grievances, both specific and general in respect of all public administration.

2) He will be vested with powers to check expenses of election candidates, political parties or other units for such purpose and to invalidate elections if such expenses are not produced or exceed the present prescribed limit.

2a) He will be empowered to prevent the Ruling Congress Party from using mass medias of communication like A.I.R., Television, Newspapers, etc. to boost the image of the party or its leaders and be able to declare such use as unfair practice invalidating the election of candidates ~~by~~ sponsored by parties indulging in such practice.

2b) He will have powers to prevent the use of administrative machinery and to influence the electorate through such machinery by any political party or candidate.

3) Lastly he will be empowered to assist the people to have Information, Get Access, make Suggestions and Complaints as Fundamental Rights and enable the people to get proper replies and redress from Authorities concerned.

The people will confer such powers as in 1 & 3 on Lokayuktas in States where they are functioning and demand that their respective State Governments invest such powers in the Lokayuktas.

In States and Territories where such independent Agencies are not existent, the people will insist on the establishment of such Independent Agencies invested with the above mentioned powers.

ALL THE ABOVE MEETINGS MUST BE HELD BEFORE 3rd November, 1974.

The meeting in Bihar must be held ON 3rd November, 1974.