My dear Shri Jayaprakashji,

My wife Purnima and I as indeed all of us in the Mavalankar family and in the country at large, are deeply disturbed to read Bombay press reports about your present ailment. I hope the mild heart attack that you have suffered will soon be checked and controlled, and thereafter, with full and proper rest and medical treatment you will be almost back to your normal good health. We hope and pray for your long life for the service of democracy and human freedom all over the world.

I need hardly say I do not expect even an acknowledgement to this letter. You are constantly in our thoughts and we are hoping for your good and complete recovery.

With affectionate regards from Purnima and myself,

Yours sincerely,

P. G. Mavalankar
