My dear J.P.

I enclose herewith the text of Mr. J.R.D. Tata's memorandum which you had wanted and of which he has been good enough to give me a copy for you. I am sure you will not find anything exciting in it!

I shall try and put together a draft statement of the nature you want and will send it to you by October 8, to your Patna addressed as promised. I shall also try and send you ^{some} draft chapters of my book if they are ready by then for your comments and suggestions.

Yours sincerely,

(M.R. Masani)
