Respected Masani Saheb:

Your letter of 21 June 1972 addressed to JP was received here yesterday.

JP is at present at resting near Bangalore in Mysore State. He is staying in a Circuit House at a place known as Tippagondana Halli which is nearly 20 miles from Bangalore.

I am forwarding your letter to JP at his present address.

Yercaud did not suit JP. Hence he left it on 30 May for Delhi and Gwalior and never went back there. He came to Madras on 8 June for a couple of days--during which he might have met Rajaji--and went straight to Bangalore. The place where he is ~~resting~~ now is nice and pleasant, and he has liked it. He is, therefore, expected to stay there till the third week of July.

I am sure JP will write to you as soon as he receives your letter. If necessary, please write to his present address: Circuit House, Tippagondana Halli, (Dist. Bangalore)

With deep regards,

Yours sincerely,

Sachchidanand
