My dear Rajaji,

I have just heard that you may be in Bombay in connection with the Jubilee Celebrations of the Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan.

As you know, I am very keen that you should address one meeting at Chowpathy. I would also like very much if we could have a Fund-Raising Dinner as in the past. As the Chowpathy meeting requires quite a bit of organisation, I would appreciate it if I could get your permission as soon as possible. The Chowpathy meeting must be on a Saturday or a Sunday and I request you to kindly arrange your programme accordingly.

With kind regards,

Sincerely Yours,

PILLOO MODY
