Dear M. Masani,

It is as if a tidal wave has swept the country and has left in its trail an atmosphere of shock and disappointment. It is, again, as if reason and common sense were given goodbye. We all wonder what went wrong.

Viewed in this perspective, your loss does not concern you alone; it is shared by us all. Let us hope that reason and sanity shall still prevail and, in the words of Frank Moraes, authority acquired by the party in power will not make it authoritarian.

With kind regards,

Yours Viren
