My dear Raju,

I hope the progress with the printing of the newsletter is satisfactory and that I shall get an airfreight packet here on Saturday the 2nd or failing that c/o Mr. C.R. Irani on the morning of the 3rd when I shall be arriving at his place and staying till the morning of the 4th when I leave for Rourkela.

Once that is off your hands, would you take in hand the preparation of the note on Gujarat as, sooner or later, this will become necessary?

I hope the brochure on the J.S. is complete. I would suggest that distribution arrangements be made even before I return to Bombay on the 6th morning. The list of our business friends to whom we send our literature should of course be included among those to whom this will go.
